

Clio

Google Summer of Code

Overview

- Clio is a web based system for maintaining (meta-) information on software components.
- The various entries maintained by the system :
 - Component
 - License
 - Product

Google Summer of Code

Goals and Motivation

- Reduction of duplicate entries.
- Clear modeling of data that enables better search and filter abilities.
- Maintain License Information – Collect, Aggregate, Correlate and Enrich

Google Summer of Code

Core Features

- Component Service
- Product Service
- Generate Disclosure Documents

Google Summer of Code

Timeline

- Phase 1
 - Model creation
 - Create and update feature of Components

Google Summer of Code

Timeline

- Phase 2
 - Create and update feature of Licenses
 - Create and update feature of Products

Google Summer of Code

Timeline

- Phase 3
 - Setup LDAP authentication for user accounts and permissions.
 - Document all work done

Google Summer of Code

Thank you